

Teaching English Overseas: A wonderful way to learn about the world

With English language skills in strong demand all around the world, InterExchange Working Abroad offers a variety of exciting opportunities to teach English overseas. Whether you plan to pursue a career in education, have a passion for helping other people or are just seeking an adventurous way to discover the world, teaching English overseas can be the path to reaching your goals.

WHAT KIND OF TEACHING JOBS ARE AVAILABLE?

InterExchange Working Abroad offers a wide variety of programs in every corner of the world. Some are teaching jobs in formal classroom settings, while others have a more relaxed structure. You can choose a program that lets you stay with a host family or one where you live on your own. Some programs even allow you to earn a certificate in Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL).

No matter where you go, you'll also improve your own foreign language skills and learn more than you ever thought possible about a new country, its people and its culture.

 InterExchange

WORKING ABROAD

WHAT WILL I EARN?

Specific benefits vary depending upon the country and program you choose. Some programs offer a small, one-time stipend while others provide a weekly salary. Other benefits may include:

- ▶ Room and board
- ▶ Language classes
- ▶ A teaching certificate
- ▶ Travel opportunities

WHERE CAN I GO?

We can help you find a teaching job in a variety of countries. Recent participants have taught English in Chile, China, France, Spain, Ghana, Thailand and other countries. New opportunities become available frequently. Visit our website at www.interexchange.org/workingabroad to review all of the opportunities currently available.

HOW LONG CAN I STAY?

You may choose a program that is as short as 3 months or as long as one year.

WHY CHOOSE INTEREXCHANGE?

InterExchange has been providing cultural exchange and work abroad opportunities for more than 40 years. Our Teaching English Overseas opportunities include quality placements in a wide variety of countries. We work directly with representatives in each country who place our participants with established teaching positions and provide assistance and support throughout the program. Our New York City-based staff is also available to help you before, during and after your participation in the program.

GET STARTED ▶

For more information on our Teaching English Overseas programs or to request an application, visit www.interexchange.org/workingabroad or call us toll-free at 1-800-597-3675.

WORKING ABROAD