

The I-94 Admission Record

If you are entering the U.S. by air or sea, United States Customs and Border Protection (CBP) will record your arrival electronically. We recommend that you access and print your electronic admission record (I-94 record) by visiting www.cbp.gov/i94 and entering the required information as it appears on the travel document you used to enter the United States.

The screenshot shows the official website of the Department of Homeland Security, specifically the I-94 website for U.S. visitors. The page is titled "Get Most Recent I-94" and includes a navigation menu with options like "HOME", "APPLY FOR NEW I-94", "GET MOST RECENT I-94", "VIEW TRAVEL HISTORY", "VIEW COMPLIANCE", "GUAM-CNMI TRAVEL INFO", and "FAQ". The main content area features a form titled "Enter Your Traveler Info" with the following fields:

- First (Given) Name:
- Last (Family) Name/Surname:
- Birth Date:  Day,  Month,  Year
- Document Number:
- Country Of Citizenship:

There are also "Cancel" and "NEXT" buttons at the bottom of the form. To the right of the form, there is a "Sample Passport" section with a small image of a passport and a "Privacy Notice" section with a link to "Read Full Privacy Notice".

If you cannot access your electronic I-94 arrival record online, or if your admission to the U.S. was recorded incorrectly, please contact a local CBP Deferred Inspection Site or Port of Entry (POE) to have your I-94 record corrected.
